

INNOVATION DEPARTMENT

“Let’s make building easier.”

Dear Sir,
Dear Customer,

For many years now, MACC has been designing and marketing innovative products that meet the specific needs of builders.

If you have an idea or are the creator of equipment that could be of interest to others in the trade, feel free to complete the form overleaf.

If your project passes our initial study, MACC agrees to offer a partnership so that together, we may work on your idea to make building easier.

Yours sincerely,

Jean-François LAVRARD
MACC Managing Director

Jean-Christophe SUSSET
MACC Managing Director

MACC is committed to developing innovations.
